NEWS UPDATE OF UNIDENTIFIED FLYING OBJECTS

There have been many sightings of unidentified flying objects, or better known as UFOs or flying saucers. But are there REALLY UFOs? With hundreds of reports every decade, it has a pretty good chance. Let´s look at some reports of UFOs that have collected over the ages...

A man claims that one morning on his way to work, he noticed a blinking object hoovering behind him. He pulled over and went over to the thing, which had now landed in the feild of wheat aside the road. When he came within 10 feet of it, he became paralyzed and was sucked into the craft. When he woke up, he found himself inside the thing staring at two beings with no faicial features; only a bump where the nose would have been. As he looked further down, he saw their fingers.. but they were not fingers. They had suction cups! He then said they sucked hair from his hair, chest, and arms. An hour later he was thrown back into the ditch with large spots af hair missing.

Fishermen claim to have rescued an alien being from the water. Fishing far in the Pacific, near the USSR, one night they saw a streak of light flash down in the sky, and make a huge splash. The next day they caught a greenish-blue creature in their nets. It had fin-like ears, and webbed feet. "We were so scared of it we threw it on board," says one of the fisherman. "It was sitting on deck, panting and gasping for breath."

Finally, they established ´party line` radio contanct with the USA and they said they would bring a ship over. But as you know, on a ´party line` you can listen in on a conversation, and that´s just what a group of Soviets did. Since they found out near where the fishermen said they were, the Soviets rushed out and robbed them of the thing before they could do anything.

But authorities say it´s not true. Besides, fishermen, as most people know, almost ALWAYS lie.

Okie Ollie

HI! My name is Okie Ollie. I am the Okie Dokie Journal´s mascot, but nobody knows what I look like. Use your imagination. Am I a plant? An animal? An old tire? A criminal? Now get a pencil. Jot down some ideas. Now, if you want, get your pencil and start DRAWING him! Or, switch on your computer, use some good picture processors (Doodle, The Computer Artist, PC Paint, Print Shop/Print Master, or GEOS are the best) and draw some picture of Ollie. Print it out. Now send it to Tristan.

Puzzlers #1:
Telephone Tunes

Did you know you can play tunes on a push-button telephone? It´s a fact! All you need to do is to call a friend and then push (WHILE your friend is on the phone*) like this:

```
Row,Row,Row Your Boat
Row,row,row your boat
 4   4   4   8    6
Gent-ly down the stream!
 6   2   6   9    #
 Mer-ri-ly mer-ri-ly
 #   #   #   0  0  0
 Mer-ri-ly mer-ri-ly
  *  *  *   4   4  4
Life is but a dream.
 6    2  2  1    1
```

*Don´t push the tunes before someone is on the line. You may get a long-distance number by mistake.

Puzzlers 2:
PUZZLERS PERIOD!

Today for Puzzlers we are having Puzzlers. That is, our low-down dirty puzzles. Anyone can figure out which months have 31 days, but how many months have 28 days? They all do! See? Try these brain-bogglers submitted by Byron.

04:2 fathers and 2 sons went fishing. They all caught a fish, but they only had 3 fish in all. How can this be explained...?!?
05:When Mike was first going out with Milly, he carved a heart that said {Mike L Milly}. He had carved it 1 meter above the ground. When Mike and Milly were married exactly 1 year later, the tree had grown 20 cm. During the following years it doubled its growth rate annually. How high was the heart at their thenth anniversary...?!?

QUASHED QUESTION MARKS

Is there any way to use INPUT without getting those stupid QUESTION MARKS? I tried using the GET command, but you can´t see the cursor.

I.M. Mad

Scince the keyboard is a device, it can be opened. Try this program and run it, but pay close attention to line 30:

```
10 PRINT "HELLO. PLEASE TYPE IN YOUR NAME. FEEL FREE TO USE ANY"
20 PRINT "PUNCTUATION."
30 OPEN 1,0:INPUT#1,A$:PRINT A$: CLOSE 1
```

If you have typed it right, it should print what you typed in. The good thing about this: it won´t give you the ?EXTRA INGNORED error.

Programming...

This month for programming, we are going to do something a bit useful if you are a programmer. We are going to create High Resoloution Graphics. I suppose you are all wondering 'What in the world is a HIGH RESOLOUTION GRAPHIC?' Well, on your computer, whatever you type in is a Low Resoloution Graphic. It's just plain, straight lines. No circles. Then there is Medium Resoloution Graphics. Those you need alot of programming. They are still pretty squared off. Then there is High Resoloution Graphics. They are super round. Like Bop'n Wrestle. It has High Resoloution Graphics. Kidwriter has Medium Resoloution Graphics. Regular typing has Low Resoloution Graphics. Got it? On the next page, type in the program for the Commodore 64. Then press @ to see your graphic. If you had typed it in properly, the @ character should have become a happy face. If not, try to check for mistakes...Remember, when you type something in, SAVE* it to the disk.

(Program C1)

IBM Low-Res (too bad!)

Type in all the programs you want for the IBM. They include "ROBOT", "LIFT OFF", and "OLYMIC TORCH". Most of them contain DATA statements, and with lots of spaces and numbers. So be sure you type them in properly, or your computer may crash or draw the picture wrong...

(Programs I1,I2,I3)

IBM Hi-Res (finally!!!)

ONLY DO THIS IF YOU REALLY, REALLY WANT TO! Ask Tristan for 'Garfield and Pooky', a program that will draw Garfield and his cut Teddy bear, Pooky in Hi-Res Mode. Remember, this is a machine language program- if you type in one mistake, the computer could lock up on you. To draw such a complex picture, it takes up a total of three pages- a long program to type. So remember... ONLY ASK FOR IT IF YOU WANT IT...!

Apple Computing

APPLE computers are one of the few home computers that have the PLOT command. With this function, we can create triangles...(Program #A)

PETting the PET...

Poke in Program P and be parilyzled with pictures of peculiar puzzles. (Precausiously for the PET)

POEMS

POEMS
Submitted by GREGORY A. WILLIAMS
Author UNKNOWN

#1: WILLIE

In the family drinking well
Willie pushed his sister Nell.
He´s there yet, because he kilt her
Now we have to buy a filter.

Little Willie shot his sister;
She was dead before we missed her.
Willie´s always up to tricks.
Ain´t he cute? He´s only six!

Willie with a thirst for gore,
Nailed his sister to the door.
Mother said, with humer quaint:
"Now, Willie, dear, don´t scratch the paint."

#2: ACID RAIN

I went out walking in the rain, but I´ll never do that again.
The rain came down in heavy drops, it washed away my shoes and socks.
It washed the hair off from my head, it took my ears then I turned red.
I watched my eyebrows wash away, my nose dripped off the other way.
My lips went next and then my teeth, (I saw them floating underneath)
But then my feet went to, oh dear, whatever could I do?
My knees turned muddy, then fell off, I opened my mouth to cough
My jaw fell of and hit the ground.
My arms were soft and runny, my bellybutton washed away.
It really wasn´t funny.
A puddle formed that once was me, the sun came out to dry it.
And if you don´t belive this poem, YOU go out and try it!

#3: WELCOME

This is a poem for those who are brave.
It starts at the mouth of a very old cave.
A goblin will greet you as you walk in,
His hair long and greasy, his green teeth agrin.
His eyes red and tiny, his face gray and mean.
He´ll grab at your hand, and let out a scream.
He´ll lead you down tunnels much darker than night.
He´ll take you past monsters that WILL try to bite,
The toes of your footsies, the ears of your head.
And soon you´d start wishing you stayed home in bed.
Worms wet and slimy crawl up your back,
And as you go further it REALLY gets black.
You can´t see a thing and all you can hear
Is a creaky old voice that says "Come closer my dear,
Let´s see if you´re chunky, let´s feel if you´re fat,
I´m hungry tody, NO STOP! Don´t go back!"
But if you´re clever you´ll get out of there
Or you´ll end in some stomach NO ONE knows where.

#4: THE POCKET

I reached into my pocket, and much to my surprise
Something in there grabbed me, and pulled me right inside.
I felt its clammy fingers, all bony, cold, and thin.
I tried to keep my head out, no use, it all went in,
And that was not the end of it, the pocket seemed so deep,
And dark, and strange, and scary, I felt I had to weep.
"Shut up! You silly creature" a voice yelled in my ear.
And then my feet were pulled inside, and I had disappeared.

#5: BYE BYE

There´s a creaking in the darkness, a graoning in the night,
There´s mutters in the next room, oh please turn on the light.
There´s footsteps in the hallway, there´s a croaking over there.
AAAAAAARRRRRRRRRRGGGGHHHHHH! The horrid monster has got me by the hair!
Oh please dont eat my fingers, oh please don´t bite my nose, oh please,
Somebody save me....!
GULP!!

#6: RHYMES

A tutor who tooted a flute,
Tried to young tooter to toot.
Said the two to the tutor,
Is it harder to toot,
Or to tutor to tooters to toot?

A flea and a fly in a flue were caught,
So what could they do?
Said the fly, "Let us flee."
"Let us fly," said the flea.
So the flew threw a flaw in the flue.

Star light, Star bright,
First star I see tonight,
I wish I may, I wish I might.....
Oh, RATS, It´s a satellite!

Grotesque Rhymes

Fatty and Skinny went to bed.
Fatty rolled over and
Skinny was dead.

Algy met a bear,
The bear was bulgy.
The bulge was Algy.
